Gods Word in Focus

Week Two

Gospel of John

1: 1-18

"The Word became flesh and dwelt among us"

The Gospel of John was written to prove that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. As an eyewitness to the love and power displayed in the miracles of Jesus, John gives us an up-close and personal look at Christ's identity. He shows us that Jesus, though fully God, came in the flesh to distinctly and accurately reveal God, and that Christ is the source of eternal life to all who believe in him.

John 1:1-18 Exploring the Passage

1. What does John tell us about “the Word” in verse 1 (printed below?)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. (John 1:1)

2. What else does John tell us about “the Word” in verse 14 (printed below?)

The Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth (John 1:14)

3. What do you think John means when, referring to “the Word,” he writes, “The life was the light of men?”
4. In verse 16 John testifies of “the Word” (i.e.; the Lord Jesus Christ), “And of his fullness we all received.” Of whom is John speaking when he writes, “we all received?” Note verse 12 (printed below) What do such people receive from the Lord Jesus Christ?

But as many as received him, He gave the right to become children of God, to those that believe in His name. (John 1:12)
